With the first snows hitting the U.S. this weekend, it's time to prepare the littlest ones for the winter weather. You don't want to be trapped indoors, plus there are snow angels to be made!

Some of the best winter items this season combine serious warmth with serious style. I've found 4 fabulous unisex options that you can pass down to the next baby, no matter what. These winter wonders will get your baby outside, where he will soon be the talk of the neighborhood.

Wrap 'em up in these flashy picks from top to bottom:

For the new walkers, you want to keep their feet warm and dry. (Especially important because the littlest ones can't tell you if they're getting frost bite.) Stonz lets you cover up any boot, shoe, or bare tootsie with a plethora of cute designs ($42.95). The waterproof shoe cover is also wind resistant, fleece-lined, and rubber-soled. Your baby's feet will stay warm, dry, and stylish all season. Even more impressive, I was sent a pair to wrap around my baby's toes and he didn't manage to kick them off even at the highest speeds.
